----- Press Release -----

The Quay County Clerk's Office would like to inform Quay County voters of a recent mailing of Absentee Ballot Applications mailed to selected voters by the Center for Voter Information, formerly, Voter Participation Center.

If you receive an Absentee Ballot Application in the mail, you are not required to submit it. The Quay County Clerk's Office will only mail Absentee Ballot Applications to voters by request. Residents are encouraged to contact the Clerk's Office with any questions regarding election related mail.

Voters wishing to vote absentee by mail must submit an application to the Quay County Clerk's Office by October 20, 2020. When made available by the Office of the NM Secretary of State, voters may also request an absentee ballot online at NMVote.org.

Voters may still choose to vote in-person during Early Voting or on Election Day for the 2020 General Election. Early voting will begin on Tuesday, October 6, 2020. That is also the first day Absentee Ballots can be mailed to voters requesting one.

The final day to register to vote in the 2020 General Election is October 6, 2020. Now is a good time to ensure your voter registration is in proper order and determine your eligibility for the election. You can find your own information at NMVote.org or call the Quay County Clerk's Office during normal business hours.

If you would like clarification or additional information regarding the 2020 General Election, please call 575-461-0510.
